[REDACTED] indicated on 3/13/57, that FREDERICK WEISS had visited KEITH THOMPSON on 2/22/57, and after this visit, had gone to Elizabeth, New Jersey, to pick up some literature from his printer. He stated the title of this new item is "Apres Nous le Deluge," which was signed by FREDERICUS and HAROLDUS, which stands for WEISS and THOMPSON.

The informant stated that this piece contains seven cartoons which are anti-UN, anti-Jewish and anti-US foreign policy. WEISS reportedly obtained these cartoons from a count in Italy. The informant said WEISS had 5,000 of these sheets printed bearing the name Polzin Publications, Post Office Box 85, Parkesburg, Pennsylvania, as the publisher; however, WEISS, after having these printed, sent them to [REDACTED] in Parkesburg, Pennsylvania, for distribution. He stated that [REDACTED] formerly was associated with the National Renaissance Party, and has published nationalist literature in Parkesburg from time to time.

The informant indicated that WEISS had stated he is using [REDACTED] "to catch flies," and that the people who used to write to him, WEISS, no longer trust him, and, therefore, he must distribute his literature through other channels.

A copy of this pamphlet will be made an exhibit in WEISS' file, 100-111893.

"NATIONAL GUARDIAN";
WEEKLY GUARDIAN ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED

The 1949 report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities cited the "National Guardian" as a publication, launched in New York in 1948 aiming at national circulation, which it found to be from its inception notoriously Stalinist in its staff, writers, management and content. (1949 report of the California Senate Fact Finding Committee on Un-American Activities, page 394).

The masthead of the "National Guardian", issue of May 14, 1956, reflects that it is published weekly by weekly Guardian Associates, Incorporated, 197 East 4th Street, New York City.

APPENDIX

NATIONAL GUARDIAN

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of January 2, 1957, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the "National Guardian":

"National Guardian

- "1. 'Established by the American Labor Party in 1947 as a "progressive" weekly. * * * Although it denies having any affiliation with the Communist Party, it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia.'

NY 105-6128

Concerning the Christian Educational Association of Union, New Jersey, it is noted that "Common Sense" published by the Christian Educational Association of Union, New Jersey, was characterized in a report issued on December 17, 1954, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, as a "hate group" vehicle publishing "some of the most vitriolic hate propaganda ever to come to the attention of the Committee." According to the report, "Common Sense" depicts Communism as "Judaism" and devotes its pages almost exclusively to attacks on the Jewish and to a lesser extent the negro minorities in our nation. Sympathy for the former Nazi regime in Germany is also injected into this propaganda.

"BOWLES, former Governor of Connecticut of the Democratic Party, more recently U. S. Ambassador to India. BOWLES at the present time holds no public office. However, he and his followers represent a faction within the Democratic Party within Connecticut. The BOWLES forces are generally considered to be 'liberal' in the Democratic Party. As underscored by the U. S. Navy League's 1957 "Operation Remember" more than twelve years have elapsed since the end of World War II. In order to gain a better historical perspective on the "war crimes trials" of professional military men in the aftermath of World War II, this letter is particularly addressed to you.

In October of 1956, Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz, Commander-in-Chief of the German Navy, was released from an "international" prison, after having served an illegal sentence of ten years confinement awarded at the Nuremberg "war crimes trials". The Admiral's "crime" was the effective professional direction of the wartime navy of his country, a "criminal standard" under which almost any career military or naval officer could be convicted.

Here it should be recalled that the "International Military Tribunal" at Nuremberg had no authorization or precedent in international law; that it was not a "Military Tribunal" in any sense of the term; and that it was based on ex post facto concepts, directly in violation of Anglo-American constitutional principles. Moreover, international law has no punitive provisions and rests entirely upon comity.

Rear Admiral Daniel V. Gallery, U. S. Navy, in his latest book, TWENTY MILLION TONS UNDER THE SEA (Regnery:Chicago), calls the "War Crimes Trials" a "libel on the military profession", and brands the trial of Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz as "barefaced hypocrisy". Further, Admiral Gallery terms the Doenitz conviction "an insult to our own submariners", and points out that U. S. Fleet Admiral Chester Nimitz, testifying in defense of Admiral Doenitz, conceded that U. S. submarines in the Pacific had waged the same "unrestricted warfare" as had the German Navy in the Atlantic.

For more than a year I have been assembling a collection of current opinions on the "war crimes trials" of career officers in general, and the case of Grand Admiral Doenitz in particular. This collection also contains many personal messages of greeting, good wishes and expressions of professional attainment, and will be presented to Admiral Doenitz. Attached hereto is a partial, representative list, indicating some of the many prominent participants.

This collection of opinions will represent a milestone in the historical re-appraisal of the dangerous precedent set at Nuremberg. In order that better perspective may be gained on this question, it is important that your views be recorded. I very much hope that you will wish to cooperate in this way. Any comments which you have to make on "war crimes trials" in general, the Doenitz case in particular, (and on "unrestricted submarine warfare") would be most welcome, and can be addressed either to Admiral Doenitz or to me, and sent to me at the above address.

Respectfully,

H. Keith Thompson

DOENITZ GOES FREE

Grand Adm. Karl Doenitz, commander of the German navy at the end of World War II, has completed his 10 year sentence as a "war criminal" and has been released from Spandau prison in Berlin. He was sentenced by an international tribunal at Nuernberg, acting under ex post facto "law" invented for the occasion. The penalties prescribed were never legislated by any lawmakers, but by representatives of the victor countries who then took over the prosecution.

The presence of Adm. Doenitz among the defendants presented the victors with an unforeseen embarrassment. He was charged with having conducted unrestricted submarine warfare. The tribunal reluctantly admitted that, in assessing this charge, an order of the British admiralty, dated May 8, 1940, directing that all vessels in the Skagerrak should be sunk without warning, could not be disregarded.

The tribunal was also obliged to take cognizance of the undisputed fact that the United States, from the first day of the war, had also waged unrestricted submarine warfare.

The laws governing submarine warfare were clearly and precisely defined in the London naval treaty of 1930, which specified that attacks were to be confined to unmistakable vessels of war, and then only after seeing to the safety of all hands. The American navy, in its official report on the submarine campaign against Japan, admitted an indiscriminate campaign in which nine out of every 10 Japanese ships sunk were non-combatant vessels. Of 276,000 Japanese drowned in these attacks, 105,000 were civilians.

Under the circumstances, the Nuernberg tribunal was in no position to work up a production against Adm. Doenitz on the same grounds. Its decision that its judgment must weigh similar acts on the part of the allies established a novel principle in jurisprudence—i. e., that whether a particular act was or was not a crime depended on whether the prosecution also had committed it. If the victors had committed it, it could not be a crime.

Nevertheless, the blanket charges against the defendants of planning, preparing, initiating, or conducting aggressive war were sufficiently broad to produce a finding that Adm. Doenitz was guilty of something—probably the crime of fighting, as a professional officer, in the service of his country. He got 10 years—a verdict proving once again that might makes right, and that hypocrisy can surmount all obstacles.

On 8/22/58 SA [ ] was telephonically contacted by an individual who identified himself only that he was calling from the office of General JOHN M. WILLIS, U. S. Army (RET), Director of the Hamod Hospital, Erie, Pa. The caller stated that he wished to advise that a letter received by General WILLIS from an H. KEITH THOMPSON, Box 254, Wall Street Station, New York 5, New York, would be mailed to the Erie Office of the FBI for information; that General WILLIS did not respond to the request set forth in the letter from THOMPSON; and that General WILLIS desired to give the letter to the FBI because he was suspicious of the purpose of the letter. The caller advised that the General could not furnish any further information on this matter; that there would be no point in contacting the General personally; and that the General wanted nothing further to do with this matter.

On 8/22/58 the above mentioned letter from H. KEITH THOMPSON to General WILLIS was received at the Erie RA along with three enclosures.

One enclosure set forth THOMPSON's efforts to assemble a collection of current opinions on the "war crimes trials" in general and on the case of Grand Admiral KARL DOENITZ, Commander-in-Chief of the Germany Navy, in particular.

Another enclosure was a two-page list of prominent individuals who contributed their opinion on these matters at the request of THOMPSON.

The third enclosure was a copy of an article from the "Chicago Daily Tribune," part one, page 16, dated 10/6/56, on the release of Admiral DOENITZ from prison.

The original communications as furnished by General WILLIS are enclosed for the information of New York. Indices of Pittsburgh Office contain no information concerning H. KEITH THOMPSON. No further action is being taken by the Pittsburgh Office in this matter.

REGISTRATION ACT

Reference is made to your memorandum of May 14, 1958, in which you request to be advised whether the subject's activities require his registration pursuant to the provisions of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended.

As mentioned in our memorandum of November 21, 1956, the statement on subject's letterhead to the effect that he was a correspondent for an Argentine newspaper constituted him an agent of a foreign principal as defined by Section 1(c) of the Act. However, pursuant to Rule 303 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated under the Act, representatives of newspapers are regarded as exempt under the provisions of Section 3(d) of the Act so long as their political activity is confined to that set forth in Rule 303.

Since the information submitted is insufficient to establish that the matter disseminated by the subject constituted political activity as that term is defined by Rule 100(a)(11) of the Rules and Regulations, it is the opinion of this Division that the exemption provided representatives of newspapers by Section 3(d) of the Act is available to the subject and therefore will not be solicited at this time.
